SUGAR BILL GOES TO CONFEREES

Washington, April 14.—House and senate disagreements over repeal of the free sugar clause of the tariff law went today to conferees of the two houses.

A senate amendment would defer putting sugar on the free list for four years from May 1. The house bill would defer it indefinitely. Revenue between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 a year is involved.

RAIDS ARE MADE BY THE POLICE AND SHERIFF

The police and sheriffs' forces made two raids on gambling places last evening. While Chief T. E. Browne was breaking in to a den conducted by Chinese, Sheriff T. A. DeVine was busy at another resort where a game of chance was reported to be in operation.

A dingy, underground gambling den at 251 Twenty-fifth street, was raided by Chief Browning, Sergeant Jerry Kallher and Patrolman Walter Moore. It was found necessary to force an entrance to the place and by the time this was done the Oriental gamblers had betaken themselves to another part of the building. The gambling tables in the room were broken up by the officers.

Poker Game Discovered.

During a raid on the upper floor of a building immediately west of the Grant rooming house, on Twenty-fourth street, between Grant and Lincoln avenues, Sheriff T. A. DeVine, accompanied by Deputies J. L. Hobson and Oren Hadlock and E. E. Butters, who is a Union Pacific special officer, last night arrested Charles Creighbaum, F. Peterson, John Doe, Frank Carter, John Toones, J. P. Moss, Charles Emery, F. E. Boyer, F. C. Redman and Joe Graves.

The men were taken to the sheriff's office where bail for their appearance in the Municipal court was furnished.
The sheriff required Creighbaum and Peterson to furnish bail in the sum of $200 each, holding them as principals in the affair, the formal charge to be "conducting a gambling house," and the others were required to furnish $50 each as bail. Creighbaum and Peterson were later released on their own recognizance.

The officers made their entrance to the place from the rear and when they entered the room found the men seated around a table. The game, it is said, looked like poker and $75.85 was in sight. The money was taken possession of, being placed in a heavy canvas sack. The officers were not resisted in any way and they had no trouble in getting in. The sheriff found an outfit for playing "Fan Tan," a Chinese game.

Speaking of the raid today, Sheriff DeVine stated that he will make arrests against gambling when complaints are made, whether in or out of the city.

The sheriff stated that formal bail will be fixed by the Municipal court during the day and that the county attorney will immediately draw up complaints.

CASE AGAINST KALLAS ENDED

The case of the state of Utah vs.
Gust Kallas was dismissed yesterday in the municipal court, following its preliminary hearing, the testimony submitted by the prosecution not being sufficiently strong to warrant the binding of the defendant over to the district court for trial. Kallas was alleged to have obtained $605.50 from the bank account of Vasilio Palatseas, by means of a fraudulent order.

The testimony of Palatseas was to the effect that Kallas obtained his signature to an order allowing the latter to check on his bank account, by means of a fraudulent interpretation of it. This testimony was refuted by Kallas and T. D. Ryan of the Commercial National Bank. Kallas claimed—the claim being circumstantially substantiated—that he was putting up his business ability against Palatseas money, in a business venture and that the latter signed the order for checking on his funds, fully understanding its purport. Mr. Ryan testified of being present when the order was given to Kallas and said that Palatseas appeared to fully understand it.

Attorney W. H. Reeder, Jr., conducted the defense and the county attorney represented the state.

PIPE LINE IN CANYON CAUSE OF A SUIT FOR DAMAGES

In Judge J. A. Howell's division of the district court this afternoon, is being tried the case of Eva P. Lewis against Ogdan City, with H. H. Armstrong, Joseph Bingham, Samuel S.
Ferrin, William A. Taylor, George Lucas, Charles H. Blair, John C.
Lynch and Alvin Tribe acting as jurors.

The suit was instituted to recover $1560, alleged damages sustained by the plaintiff when the city dug a trench and established a water pipe line along the county highway across the plaintiff's property in Ogdan canyon.

Specifically, the plaintiff avers that in digging the trench the contractors for the city did blasting, and rocks were thrown upon the roofs of some of the buildings at the Lewis resort.
It is also claimed a certain spring was dried up by the trenching and the placing of pipe, and that the river bed on the plaintiff's property was partially filled with rock and other material.

The city contends that Mrs. Lewis was not damaged to the extent she claims through the building of the city pipe line from Cold Water canyon to the Municipal Artesian wells near Huntsville, and that the city had a free right-of-way over the county road by reason of a franchise given the municipality by the county board of commissioners.

The condemnation suit of the city against Mrs. Lewis has been merged in the suit on trial, as all the facts embraced in the condemnation case are involved in the suit at bar.

SCHOOLS OBSERVING ARBOR DAY WITH EXERCISES

Special programs appropriate to Arbor Day were held in the schools of the city today, and were followed by the planting of trees and shrubs on the school grounds.

Instructions were given for the children to follow out the planting idea at their homes tomorrow, and it is expected that a large number will begin work on home gardens as contestants for the prizes offered by the Civic league for members of the League of Good Citizenship.

CLERK CONCEIVED SISAL MONOPOLY

Washington, April 14.—Leo C.
Browne, who, as a clerk on a Mexican railroad, conceived the idea that developed into a ten-million-dollar corporation to finance the sisal crop of Yucatan, today told the senate investigation committee of the difficulties that beset his efforts to mature it.

Detectives, he said, followed him, his baggage was rifled in hotels, American capitalists were diffident, and at one time all negotiations were ceased by Gen. Carranza, who was seeking recognition from the United States and feared, Browne said, that the International Harvester company would embarrass his negotiations if he undertook to eliminate it as a sisal handler.

Browne is now assistant secretary of the Pan-American Corporation, the organization of New Orleans bankers who accepted the idea.

Deaths and Funerals

STRATFORD—The funeral of Edwin Stratford was held yesterday afternoon in the Larkin chapel, with Bishop O. M. Sanderson presiding.
The chapel was filled to its capacity with friends and relatives of the deceased, who was covered with floral tributes. The speakers were Pastor George W. Larkin, John Chambers, C. J. Jensen and Bishop Sanderson. Mrs. Mary Farley sang "Sometime We'll Understand" and "I Need Thee Every Hour"; William Pickett sang "My Jesus as Thou Wilt" and "Guide Me to Thee." Interment was in the city cemetery, the grave being dedicated by David Jensen.

SLATER—Funeral services for Mrs.
Margaret K. Slater were held yesterday afternoon in the Larkin chapel, with Rev. Frank G. Brainerd officiating. Two solos were rendered by Mrs. Dalrymple. The service was attended by the ladies of the Macabees in a body and by a number of other friends of the deceased. The body was shipped to Salt Lake City and will be interred in the Mount Olivet cemetery, following another funeral service.

SMITH—Mary Edna Smith, wife of the late James D. Smith died of inflammation of the bowels yesterday at 11:20 p. m. at the family home in Farr West after five days illness.
Mrs. Smith was born in Montgomery county, Indiana, December 5, 1844, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Cum-berlin. She was married to James D. Smith in Iowa and came to Farr West, Utah, to live in 1890. Mr. Smith died June 2, 1891. Mrs. Smith was an active member of the Christian church and had many friends in the community in which she lived.

The following children survive:
Chas. C. Farr West; Mrs. Myrtle M.
Murdoch, Ogdan; Mrs. Jessie B. Gunderson, of Roy; also 15 grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: Irene Cumberlin, Ogdan; Mrs.
Iona McKay, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs.
Jennie A. Goodwin, Thorpe, Wash.; Charles Cumberlin, Page Co., Iowa; Clara C. Cumberlin, Seymour, Iowa.
